

Job Printing.

We are now ready to do all kinds of plain and fancy job printing, in the best style, on short notice, and at cheap as any other office. We have competent hands, good presses, a fine assortment of paper and cards, and we can do good and cheap work. All kinds of books, briefs, catalogues, etc., printed in the best style and on short notice. We ask the patronage of Democrats, and all others that want printing done.

To Local Advertisers.—Occasional, or transient local notices will not be inserted in this paper. For the purpose of advertising, they are handled in, and to insure insertion must be handed in before 6 o'clock P. M. Local notices of five lines and under will be inserted one time for 50 cents; each additional insertion of the same matter, 25 cents; marriage notices, 50 cents; funeral notices, $1; pay required in advance. Notices for benevolent societies not exceeding five lines, one insertion, 25 cents. The above terms will be strictly observed.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

For fresh Baltimore Oysters, raw, stewed or fried, go to Cunningham's, on Illinois street, opposite the Governor's mansion.

It is thought that Gen. T. A. Morris will decline the appointment of Major General tendered him by the President.

The train on the Cincinnati railroad that left at 11:30 A. M. was detained yesterday until 5 P. M. by a break, we understand, in the canal.

The ladies of Wesley Chapel will give an opera supper in the basement of the church on Friday evening at 9 o'clock. The public are invited to attend.

Masonic Notice.—There will be a special meeting of Indianapolis Lodge No. 3 this Friday evening at seven o'clock.

The beautiful weather is tempting fishing parties to forsake the noise of the city for the limpid streams of the country. We saw a party of six return yesterday with four empty jugs and three fish. Glorious sport.

Hoot Skirts.—We direct the attention of the trade to the advertisement of Henry J. Smith, of Cincinnati. His stock of white and colored, ladies' and misses', skirts is full, and offered at manufacturers' prices.

Yesterday a child of Charles Moulton, about one year old, pulled a handful of boiling soap suds upon its body and scalded so large an extent of surface as to render its recovery hopeless. Mr. Moulton lives in the northeastern part of the city.

As an investment—a place to put green backs where they can neither be carried away or depreciated in value—the piece of valuable timber land west of the city, offered by Frank Smith, real estate agent, is the best. It is good land and offered cheap. Go and see it.

A money drawer was picked up yesterday morning on Georgia street containing some bread tickets and a small piece of silver change. A robbery has doubtless been committed, but such things are so common now that they cease to excite attention.

Remember Masonic Hall to night. T. Buchanan Reed gives recitations for the benefit of the Sanitary Committee. You can have the pleasure of hearing the distinguished poet and artist at the same time give your mite to a most laudable and patriotic charity.

A middle-aged man, dressed in black, yesterday stationed himself in the corner of Market and East streets and demanded of ladies as they passed that they surrender their furs. She was probably crazy. Several ladies were frightened by her, and we have been requested to call attention to the circumstance.

The telegraph yesterday mentions the hanging by the rebels of a scout named Marsh, near Aldie, in Virginia. Marsh belonged to the scouting corps under charge of Gen. R. S. Slocum, this city, and was attached to Gen. Sigel's headquarters. He was once before taken prisoner, paroled and exchanged.

Book Keeper and Collector.—A competent and experienced book keeper and collector, who can keep books in double entry, is wanted for a situation in this city. A middle-aged man, and a Democrat, will be preferred. Address box 23, Indianapolis, giving references, qualifications, amount of salary required, etc.

The work of making cartridges at the arsenal in this city is suspended for the present. A building is being erected near the Deaf and Dumb Institution, to be used for the purpose of making cartridges. The late location was deemed dangerous. Over two hundred females are usually employed at the work.

Benefit of Miss Coombs.—A most attractive bill is announced for this evening at the Metropolitan for the benefit of Miss Coombs. We anticipate a crowded house. Miss Coombs appears as Mrs. Haller in the Stranger, and as Constance in the Love Chase. A greater treat than is here presented could not be selected in the wide range of dramatic literature.

Oyster Festival.—An entertainment will be given by the ladies of Wesley Chapel at the lecture room of the church, this evening at 7 o'clock. Oysters, ice cream, etc., will be in abundance. The proceeds will be applied to the completion and improvement of the parsonage and premises. The public are invited to participate in the festivities of the evening.

Another Cavalry Regiment.—Another regiment of cavalry we understand is to be raised in this State. Two young officers, Lieutenants Shultz and George, who have seen a good deal of service in the cavalry, are here recruiting companies for it. A good chance is thus offered for young men, who desire, after training under well instructed officers, to try their blades with Morgan's rangers.

JOSEPH J. BINGHAM.—We observe that the name of this able and tried Democrat, who for years has conducted the Indianapolis State Sentinel, with distinguished success, and whose services in the late campaign have powerfully contributed to the redemption of Indiana from Abolition misrule, is spoken of as a candidate for the United States Senate for the short term. If Mr. Bingham should be elected, it would be a grateful compliment to the just war waged by the press to the journal of which he is the head, and which has done so much for the Democratic cause.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The largest collection of beautiful ladies' and sweet Misses' furs, the best assortment of nice good boys' caps, all to be found at the new Hat, Cap and Fur Emporium, lately established by Isaac Davis, No. 15 Pennsylvania street. The quality of these goods, the low prices at which they are sold, and the great pleasure taken in showing and disposing of them, cause a great rush toward this establishment. Davis, however, is equal to the emergency, "not any other man."

The Camp of Instruction for officers of the Indiana Legion closed yesterday. The gentlemen who have received lessons there have benefited if they pursue the studies commenced. They have got a practical knowledge of military movements, that will enable them to comprehend clearly other movements had down in the books. To the officer of the 11th regiment, one of the best drilled in the army, who was present yesterday at the closing parade, speaks very highly of the proficiency of the pupils of the temporary military academy. The marching he said was good—the firing superb.

General Order No. 112.

STATE OF INDIANA, AND THE OFFICE OF
INDIANAPOLIS, October 31, 1863.

All recruiting officers authorized to recruit men for the one year service, will cease recruiting after this date and immediately transmit or bring to this office reports of their progress and file of all recruits enlisted by them, with dates and places of enlistment.

All persons who have volunteered under any of the recruiting officers above specified, will immediately assemble together and report from them to the commanding officer at Camp Sullivan, for duty. Incomplete or fractional companies will be combined on the most advantageous terms for the interest of all parties concerned.

The drafted men and substitutes remaining in Camp Sullivan will be organized into companies without delay upon the following plan:

Each regiment will be composed of ten companies, and each company will be organized as follows:

One Captain, one 1st Lieutenant, one 2d Lieutenant, one 1st Sergeant, four Sergeants, eight Corporals, two musicians, one wagoner, and sixty-four to eighty-two privates. The maximum number of companies in a regiment is ten.

Companies may nominate suitable persons for Captain, who, if approved by the Governor, will be appointed and commissioned.

The right is reserved to the Governor to select and commission the 1st and 2d Lieutenants of companies at his discretion.

As soon as companies can be formed, rolls will be made out preserving the identity of the men, and the township and county from which they were drafted, and copy filed with the commanding officer and another to the Adjutant General.

By order of the Governor.
L. M. SINGER, Adj. Gen., Ind.

Vanity Fair has a cut representing two colored gentlemen discussing "the crisis," under which the following conversation is reported:

"I am a 'nigger,' a 'nigger' dicker, and I am just now at Jeff Davis's going to 'talk' about the President's Proclamation; he gwine 't'clare de niggers ob de Norf States slaves arter de fest of Janewary next."

"Pomp—Bress us all!"

A correspondent of the Journal writing from Harper's Ferry, and professing to be a soldier, goes into spasms over the recent election of Mr. Lincoln.

The Louisville Democrat says people generally find it difficult to appreciate the importance of military movements, which are not accompanied by the shedding of blood.

The crowd at the Jubilee.—We hardly know how to estimate the crowd in Bellefontaine on Saturday night. If we agree that it was composed of people we should say there were about 3,000. If it be estimated as butternuts, there were not less than 50,000 butternuts!

It is said that the rebels are suffering for the want of salt. The abolitionists have abundance of the article, being at the headwaters of Salt river. We suppose they will supply them with salt, as they have supplied them with everything necessary to make rebellion prosper.

Galusha Grow—Galusha Grow—What do you know—what do you know? You're best for Congress by a thousand.

Condition of the Rebel Forces.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The President is engaged in the preparation of his message, and declines receiving any visitors except such as call on important business.

The command of the rebel army of Northern Virginia has been transferred from Lee to Longstreet, in consequence of the former officer disobeying orders in not reporting his command to Stonewall Jackson at a certain point on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad by a particular route, and marching his men by way of Red Sulphur Springs, where he was met by an order to hand over his command to Lee.

The Richmond Inquirer says Gen. Jackson is destroying the Baltimore and Ohio railroad as rapidly and effectually as possible in the neighborhood of Winchester.

Col. Imboden has advanced to Moorefield, Hardy county, and the evolutions of our army in that direction are carefully observed.

It is believed in front that Lee has divided his army into two large corps, one under Jackson and the other under Longstreet, and is leaving the region in which he has been posted since recrossing the river into Virginia.

From information received this morning we believe portions of Jackson's advance have crossed Blue Ridge, by Front Royal, and that a force of 8,000 rebels, under Walker, are known to have been for two days past at Upperville and their advance of Longstreet's corps.

The expedition of the rebel forces was probably to be able to make a successful dash at the city of Washington, and to capture the city of Washington.

Our army of the Potomac is promptly in motion to meet these movements, and Burnside and Porter are already so close on the heels of Longstreet that they probably will reach his steps toward Winchester, and seek to retreat down the valley rather than advance further in this direction.

We should not be surprised to hear any moment of a considerable battle in that quarter.

A special to the Times says: Quartermaster General Meigs has resolved not to purchase any more Sibley tents on account of expense, but to use the army's own tents instead.

At the latter furnish us facilities for providing the warm necessary during winter, this is regarded as equivalent to a declaration that they will not go into winter quarters.

From Harper's Ferry.

HARPER'S FERRY, Oct. 29.—The following is to the Baltimore Herald: Since Sunday the movement of troops in this vicinity has been constant, and with the exception of Gen. Sumner's, one O'Connell's, corps on Bolivar Heights, our whole army may now be said to be in motion.

General Burnside's movement into Virginia has been strongly followed, and Fitz John Porter's corps is now in position to operate promptly from the same direction.

McClellan's headquarters are now at Berlin, immediately on the Potomac.

Burnside is with the advance.

Rebel pickets appeared opposite Sharpsburg, and picket firing over the river has been resumed.

Notwithstanding the numerous manifestations and a contrary belief entertained at headquarters, the impression increases that the main body of the rebel army has already retreated, and that we shall find nothing at Winchester.

It is pretty well known that a considerable force of rebels has already crossed the mountains through the Gap at Front Royal.

It is believed a still larger number is passing Southward on the other side of the mountain. The forces which our reconnoissances found in the vicinity of Slicker's Gap and Upperville are probably watching against the advance of the main army as it stretches toward Gordonsville.

Unless Lee's retreat is much further advanced than is probable or possible, it would seem that McClellan has a fair chance of making a successful forward movement, aided by a similar advance from Washington, to force Lee to stop and fight before he gains Gordonsville.

The New York and Philadelphia papers persist in talking of Lee's army as a "small" army. We have had no heavy rains, except for a few hours on Sunday night, and the river has not swollen. The river is still fordable almost anywhere.

The movements of the enemy are very mysterious, and reports are conflicting.

A contraband, who escaped yesterday morning from Charleston, says Hill and Jackson's whole force have moved from Banker Hill to Charlie Creek, occupying the whole town and this side of it.

Two regiments of Stuart's cavalry are this side of Charleston, and his remaining force is on the other side between Rockstown and Mrs. Fleming's farm, three miles off.

From Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, October 29.—The loyal citizens arrested last night were taken on board the steamship Baltimore on Sunday morning, and were taken to New York City.

Gov. Bradford reached the wharf before the departure of the boat and was permitted to have an interview with the Rich, one of the prisoners, who is an aid to the Governor.

On returning from the wharf the Governor immediately telegraphed to the President denouncing the arrest as an outrage and demanding an unconditional release of the prisoners.

Judge Bond adjourned the Criminal Court on account of the arrest of the Clerk of the Court, and declared his intention to go to Washington to see the President.

Dr. Anthony and Peter Saverin, a committee appointed by the meeting last night, have just returned from Washington. They had an interview with the President who informed them that he had sent an order to the War Department for the release of the prisoners, but that no such order is known to have been received here.

In the meantime Judge Bond and Gov. Bradford have gone to Washington.

There is much excitement and indignation exhibited here on the subject.

From New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Another important blow at the slave trade was dealt yesterday in the United States Circuit Court in this city, in convicting Albert Horn for fitting out the steamer City of Norfolk for that traffic.

The steamer Wachuta, Captain Gilpin, was brought into Port Royal Thursday last a prize to the gunboat Menominee. She was captured after a full day's chase off the coast of North Carolina. She threw overboard the greater portion of her cargo, and so strained her engines as to be unable to make steam. She is believed to have been loaded with arms and ammunition.

The Wachuta is an iron steamer built in London and will prove a valuable prize.

The Richmond papers report everything quiet in Lee's army.

From Norfolk.

NORFOLK, October 28.—The Herald's dispatch says: On Friday a reconnoissance was made in force from this point to the Blackwater. We held the point of the Blackwater a small party of the enemy was encountered by Dodge's rifles and flanked. A skirmish occurred in which Lieutenant Wheeler of the mounted rifles was killed and a Captain of the same regiment wounded. Six prisoners were captured and our troops returned to camp.

From Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, October 29.—Gen. Rosecrans and staff arrived here this morning.

Rosecrans takes Buell's Department. Buell goes to Annapolis, Maryland.

Gen. Dumont has also arrived, en route for his command.

Arrested.

SHARPSBURG, October 29.—An important arrest was made last night. Rev. Robert Douglas, an alleged Secessionist, living near here, was arrested for exhibiting signals to the enemy, and was sent, under guard, to Harper's Ferry last night.

From Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, October 29.—Rev. C. A. Hay, whose arrest by Gen. Wool is noticed in today's dispatch, had a hearing in Baltimore before this officer and was discharged.

This arrest will be made the subject of investigation.

From St. John's.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Oct. 29.—The steamer Hibernia from Liverpool on the 16th via London-derry on the 17th, passed Cape Race en route for Quebec at 3 o'clock this morning. The sea was so heavy after the recent gale that it was impossible for the vessel to board her.

The dates are five days late.

From Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 30.—The loyal citizens arrested on Tuesday night have not yet been released from custody.

Governor Bradford has demanded the unconditional release of all parties arrested, and that all the papers and documents be given up.

The petition for the removal of General Wool has received numerous signatures last night and this morning.

An advertisement appears in the loyal papers today inviting the citizens of Baltimore to call at the Union Reading Room, and sign a memorial to President Lincoln for the removal of General Wool.

From Fort Monroe.

FORT MONROE, Oct. 29.—A man who says he was taken prisoner by the rebels several months ago, and who finally succeeded in obtaining his release, furnishes the following account of the Merrimac No. 2:

I have been in Richmond some time. During my stay I went on board the Merrimac No. 2. She is thoroughly and heavily iron clad, and is in every way a tough customer. She
